Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Richard Fichter on December 15, 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 17 has been cancelled.

Claim 20 has amended to read as follows:--

- 20. A method of treatment of a human or animal subject to promote wound healing comprising administering to said subject a therapeutically effective amount of an active compound of formula (I) as claimed in claim 1.
- 2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The rejection under 35 USC 102(b) is withdrawn in light of the court decision in In re Yale 58 CCPA, 434 F.2d 666 (1970). According to the court, if an error was made in the listing of a compound in a reference and said error is obvious to the skilled artisan, it cannot be said to describe or suggest that compound to those in the art. In the present case, the listing of RN 97452-85-2 by CAS as taught by Dolence et al. is erroneous because the reference does not teach or suggest said compound.
